

THE DUTY OF REPUBLICANS.

SENATOR WARNER MILLER URGES

TIVITY AND VIGILANCE.

THE ELECTION IN NEW YORK STATE INVOLVES

THE CONTROL OF NATIONAL LEGISLATION

—SPEECHES BY MR. MILLER AND CON-

GRESSMAN PAYNE AT AUBURN.

BY TELEGRAM TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Auburn, N. Y., Oct. 31.—En Senator Warner Miller and Congressman George E. Payne made speeches in support of the Republican party's candidates at Morrisville in the southern part of Cayuga County, this afternoon and at Albany to-night. In both of the county Assembly districts a determined effort is being made by the Democrats, under the direction of Governor Hill, to elect the Democratic candidate for Assemblyman. As might be expected under these circumstances, both Mr. Miller and Mr. Payne paid a good deal of attention in their speeches to the contest over the Assembly, and pointed out that the election of a Democratic Assembly would result in the election of a Democratic United States Senator.

—Chairman B. Hill succeeded William M. Evarts as United States Senator; — said Mr. Miller, and then he added: "This is the issue in the conflict over the Assembly."

Both of the meetings were largely attended and though despite the fact that at Morrisville the farmers in attendance had to come for miles over roads deep in mud. In Auburn, the Genesee-seat, rink was jammed to the doors with an audience of 5,000 people. At Morrisville, Mr. Miller at once touched the main theme of his speech saying:

"Gentlemen: We are—
1. To look at these off-

sets as little as it can be. It truly, we are, an evil for Presidents this year; but still, the election next Tuesday in this State will be of the highest importance to the State and to the Nation. We have to choose between the Assembly and the Anti-Assembly, acting with the Senate to see whether we are to have a Democrat or a Republican to represent us in the United States Senate. As an opponent of William M. Evarts, does one say, 'That is a matter of no importance, since the Republican party now has a majority in the Senate.'

It is in my opinion the Democrats are marshalling their forces to gain possession of the United States Senate.

The Senate is the bulwark of Republicanism, a safe guard to the protective tariff. A change of only a few votes would give the Senate to the Democrats. That same Democratic politician, David B. Hill, is now attempting to elect a Democrat Senator to give him a majority in the Senate; and I am sure that this is the case. The Government has the prominent Democrats to come to Albany, and has directed them to nominate this or that man as a worthy man to the Assembly in every sense.

We have not up to the latest and most popular news what could find in every Assembly district. Governor Hill is making that same attempt in this Assembly district. We Republicans have only six majority in the state Senate. If Mr. Hill obtains a majority in the Assembly, he will unseat enough Republicans to give him a majority in the Senate; it is the same.

The election, then, is a question of principle and not of men. In that case you should vote for Mr. Miller. You will also vote for the most patriotic principles for the State. For the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, we have now nineteen Republican congressmen from this State. That proportion should be retained. In the last House of Representatives the Democrats attempted to defeat any action upon the tariff by voting to vote. The Republican party had come into power in 1888, pledged to pass an advanced protective tariff bill, and to pass a law to insure pure elections. Then the Democrats tried their obstructive tactics. There were sixty millions of people, disengaged from the ballot box, who could not vote. We must now have nineteen Republican congressmen from this State. That proportion should be retained. The meeting was called under the auspices of District Assembly No. 49, Knights of Labor, and had for its object to organize opposition to John J. Gorman, the Tammany Hall nominee for Congress in the 11th District. That was the extent to which the meeting went, no support being given to any candidate, the audience being left free, as far as the speakers were concerned, to vote for whom they liked. It was a big meeting; but it was evident, even before the speeches began, judging from the knots of fierce-looking fellows with typical Tammany faces flushed with drink who were scattered here and there in the body of the hall, that there would be trouble. One of the speakers referred severely to Captain McCullagh for not having put out the disturbers, and the Captain was about to rise and protest, when the chairman hastened to the rescue and assured the audience that Captain McCullagh's action was perfectly proper in the circumstances, an announcement which was received with prolonged applause.

George E. Murray, master workman of District Assembly No. 49, president and made a brief opening speech. He said: "In denouncing certain candidates for office, we do not necessarily endorse other candidates. In that regard we leave our friends to exercise the franchise as judges in an important case, not as partisans, and in such a manner as in your judgment will conduce best to the benefit of the workingmen and of the whole people. I will now introduce—"

Cries of "Put him out" and "Sit down" greeted this request, followed by cheering mingled with hisses.

"Give me two minutes to—" O'Donnell shouted, his face pale with excitement.

"Never," retorted O'Donnell, defiantly; "I am entitled to speak in any labor meeting in New-York."

Confusion now reigned; the women on the platform and men throughout the hall shouted fiercely to "put him out"; the hecklers screamed themselves hoarse for Gorman and Dunphy; Captain McCullagh rushed over to whisper something in the chairman's ear, and he in turn was trying in vain to calm the house, when O'Donnell again broke forth:

"I have here an affidavit from Mr. E. J. Dunphy—but the rest of the sentence was lost in the hissing and cheering and general uproar which ensued.

When the proper time comes," he said, "we will listen to you," and then he add, in a sarcastic tone, "we know already all about that affidavit."

An excited man here shouted: "Point of order," but the chairman shut him up by saying they were not there to discuss points of order. Then came yells, hisses, cries of "Down with the Tammany heelers," and cheers for Dunphy. At this point George Francis Train, who had just come into the hall, began handing to the people sitting near him, little Japanese coins, remarking in eloquent tones and at the same time shaking his head vigorously: "The first of the great political parties ever seen in this country"—meaning the coins, not the meeting.

The chairman, white with rage, struck against the wall with his fist, shouting: "If you are going to run over me, make your humble servant, you struck against the wrong man."

At length order was restored, and it came out later that the chairman, who was the affidavit that O'Donnell was not the man he claimed to be, the law department of the New-York Central Railroad five years ago, and not since, and that it was false that he had assisted that corporation in any way during the recent strike, was on the contrary all the while in the interest of the workers.

This quoted all further expressed opposition to Dunphy, and the speakers, one and all, concentrated their efforts on the Tammany speakers, whom they round with might and main. "Single him down," shouted Thomas Ford, of the Brass Workers' Union, "for special vengeance, and bury him so deep out of sight on this day that he will never again be able to effect a political resurrection." The speech which was responded to by a thunderous chorus of cheers.

Cornelius Boddy, Thomas F. Sanford, George K. Lloyd, and the author, Vice-Sector of the Central Park Union, and T. W. Powers also spoke on general labor topics, and Secretary Mallon read a series of resolutions, which were passed.

TO CLOSE THE CAMPAIGN FITTINGLY.

REPUBLICANS TO HAVE ONE LAST ROARING

MEETING AT COOPER UNION TO-NIGHT.

The Republicans of this city will close the campaign by a rousing mass-meeting to-night in Cooper Union, which will be a big crowd of earnest Republicans present, and they will make the building fairly shake with their enthusiastic cheers for the anti-Tammany candidates, the anti-Tammany speakers and the anti-Tammany sentiments to which they will give utterance.

There is an excellent list of orators, among them Elihu Root, the Rev. Dr. S. MacArthur, Daniel G. Rollins and Edwin T. Bartlett. They will present the issues of the day clearly and eloquently and besides these the anti-Tammany candidates will have a few words to say. Francis M. Scott, John W. Goff, James W. Hawes, William H. Corss and William H. Bellamy have all promised to be present. Among the list of vice-presidents are the following well-known Republicans: Charles S. Le Grand, B. Cannon, John Harson Rhodes, Frederick D. Tappan, H. O. Armer, Joseph H. Choate, the Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby, Edwin Einstein, ex-Judge of the Supreme Court, Rev. Dr. S. John Knobell, Alfred H. Whiting, Colonel William L. Strong, George Braemer, Henry E. Howland, John D. Watson, Patrick Ford, Nathaniel A. Prentiss, David Mitchell, Charles L. Tiffany, Edward M. Ammidown, ex-senator Horace Russell, General Horace Porter, James Tallcott, Rev. Dr. C. H. C. Abbott, Alfred C. Cheney, Shepard Shook, Edwin A. McAlpin, Charles N. Faister, Seth M. Milliken, Andrew B. Humphrey, Collier Charles Watrous, the Rev. Dr. William B. Derrick, Charles A. Flammer, Charles A. Peabody, Bernard Biglin, William H. Ten Eyck, J. Thomas Stevens, Charles G. Blair, John S. Smith, Thomas C. Acton, and others. The New-York City Society, headed by J. Pierpont Morgan, William Brookfield, James A. Blanchard, Joel W. Mason, Henry Hall, Howard Carroll, Alexander T. Mason, Dennis F. Burke, Thomas Allison and Cornelius Van Cortt.

TRYING TO INTIMIDATE COLORED VOTERS.

There is a desperate attempt on the part of the Democratic leaders in the Xth Assembly District of Essex County, N. J., to intimidate the colored voters. East Orange is the centre of this district, and it has therefore gone strongly Republican. Yesterday a young colored man named James Perkins, one of the more upright and honorable persons in the township, was Autumnal Advice.

Keep your feet warm and dry.

Wear waterproof boots in preference to arctic or rubbers.

Keep your eye on your umbrella, you will need it yourself.

Stop a cough or a cold at once. Pneumonia and consumption may be started by either.

If you wear rubbers take them off whenever you have the chance, even if only for a few minutes.

If you feel a cough or a cold coming on take a drink of pure whiskey at once. It will keep the blood in circulation and is the best preventive against the diseases of the season.

Remember that only pure whiskey should be taken. Duff's Pure Malt Whiskey has the strongest recommendations from the leading scientists and medical men in the known.

Insist on having it.

arrested on a sworn complaint on the charge of falsely registering a name. The matter being brought to the attention of Judge Munro the accused man was released on bail. This is understood to be the first of a series of attempts that will be made and continue through the remainder of the term before election with the object, if possible, of intimidating the colored voters.

THE OUTLOOK BRIGHT IN THE STATE.

Governor Hill was at the Hoffman House until 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when he started for Hartwood on his tour through Connecticut. Dr. Laney Nicoll did not take breakfast with him, so Mr. Nicoll's Home is the place where the visitors from the outside world meet which it had when the Governor was here before.
